

Associations are an important part of our social life. As a result, the life of the association, as well as our society, is regulated by social norms. Without these regulations, neither the association nor society can function as far as possible without conflict.

The Rhein Main Old Stars see themselves as an active part of our social society. Our aim is to support children and young people in appropriate social institutions. For this purpose, corresponding events are organized for fundraising purposes. In order to enable the maximum possible fundraising to be possible, a sufficient public presence is necessary for this purpose. In this context, it can be said of a role model function of the players and managers of the OI'Man

Therefore, the behavior of the respective club or Facebook group members should not lead to any negative influence on the Rhein Main Old Stars. Publications on the Internet or other media platforms are the sole responsibility of the author. The Rhein Main Old Stars reserve the right to distance themselves from such publications and to initiate appropriate steps, such as exclusion from the group, if necessary.

We see ourselves as an association / team / group without racism, violence and corruption. Principles such as tolerance, fair play and respect are our main priorities.

Equal opportunities and equal treatment, regardless of ethnic origin, color, gender, religion, nationality, sexual orientation, social origin or political attitude, insofar as these are based on democratic principles and tolerance towards dissidents, are guaranteed by the Rhein Main Old Stars.

We do not support any threats, actions, uncontrolled behavior, damage to property, theft or other offences. Furthermore, there is no prevalence of extreme political, religious or sexual views or representations.

Problems of any kind (including private ones) can be confidently addressed to the coaches, the orga team or to the board of directors. As far as it is in the power of the association, we will try to solve the problems together. Of course, the concerns of the players will be treated confidentially

As a whole group consisting of orga team, board, players, friends, supporters want to work together in a trusting and constructive way. Even in the case of contentious disputes, the aim remains to maintain good cooperation for the duration of the OI'Man's existence.

We see ourselves as an association / team / group without racism, violence and corruption. Principles such as tolerance, fair play and respect are our main priority and should also be taken into account by the fans.

We ask our players, fans, supporters and group members to respect our principles

We confirm that we have read and understood the mission statement and accept it.
